

2019 Grant Recipients

Agnes Scott College | Decatur, Georgia | $2,715,000

To support Positioning Students for Success through Discovery, Exploration and Connection Initiative.

Cheshire Academy | Cheshire, Connecticut | $500,000

To enhance The Goizueta Foundation Scholars Fund, which provides need-based tuition assistance with a preference for Hispanic/Latino students.

Community Guilds (STEAM Truck) | Decatur, Georgia | $750,000

To provide salary support for capacity-building personnel over three years.

East Lake Foundation | Atlanta, Georgia | $770,000

To deepen STEAM/Project Based Learning investments across Charles R. Drew Charter's PreK-12 pipeline over three years.

Emory University | Atlanta, Georgia | $30,000,000

To establish and endow the Roberto C. Goizueta Global Classroom, the Roberto C. Goizueta Innovation Center, and the Roberto C. Goizueta Institute for Business and Society.

Holy Innocents' Episcopal School | Atlanta, Georgia | $700,000

To support the Full STEAM Ahead Initiative.

Horizons Atlanta | Atlanta, Georgia | $500,000

To support STEAM programming enhancements.

Marist School | Atlanta, Georgia | $2,000,000

To support Marist's STEAM 2.0 Initiative, which encompasses a Global and Humane Studies Task Force, Professional Development, and the creation of a Virtual and Material Experience and Design Lab over three years.

Project Lead the Way, Inc. | Indianapolis, Indiana | $1,000,000

To provide school grants to public and charter schools in the 10-county metro Atlanta area over four years.

Purpose Built Schools, Inc. | Atlanta, Georgia | $1,000,000

To support the salaries of instructional staff within Purpose Built Schools Atlanta's Enrichment Programs over three years.

Robert W. Woodruff Arts Center | Atlanta, Georgia | $5,000,000

To support the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra's Simulcast Series over three years, and to establish and endow The Atlanta Arts and Culture Endowment to support campus-wide innovations and collaboration between The Woodruff Arts Center and other Atlanta arts organizations.

The Walker School | Marietta, Georgia | $600,000

To support a Lower School Innovation Lab, the salary of a Director of Innovation and Integration, and tools and equipment to support STEAM education over three years.

University of Miami | Coral Gables, Florida | $2,600,000

To establish and to provide a program accelerator for the Roberto C. Goizueta Distinguished Presidential Scholar-In-Residence Endowed Fund.

Woodward Academy | College Park, Georgia | $875,000

To support a comprehensive STEAM Initiative.

Total | $49,010,000